PRESS RELEASE:

Wednesday, January 20, 2010

CCF Releases Winter Quarterly Report; Highlights are:

Safe Schools/Healthy Students: Working to Make Schools Safer in Albemarle & Charlottesville – June Jenkins, Project Director, and Lois Wallenhorst, Project Assistant, have been hired and are working hard to develop a solid foundation for the program to be successful over the next few years. Building on the initiative's collaborative framework, Safe Schools/Healthy Students Albemarle/Charlottesville's mission brings together a team of community-based organizations to work together on violence prevention.

Task Force on Racial Disparity and Disproportionality in Youth Service Update – The Task Force recently received a comprehensive report on five key service areas and will be working to develop policy and action recommendations for presentation to the Commission in late Spring.

Commissioner Profile – This quarter we are proud to spotlight Maurice Walker. From Upward Bounder to Program Coordinator for Upward Bound, Maurice Walker has accomplished a great deal. Read about his achievements and his objective to help youth connect with positive activities.

Announcements – CCF would like to welcome Ashley Keefe, Truancy Prevention Case Manager for the CASAS Start Truancy Prevention Program; CCF continues to recruit up to four parent reps to serve on FAPT; and the City of Charlottesville and Albemarle County are accepting applications for a Private Provider Rep for CCF.

To learn more about any of the topics above, please use the link on the homepage of our website, www.ccfinfo.org, to download the PDF of the full Winter 2010 Quarterly Report.
